IN MEMORIAM

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
1917 - 1963

DEDICATION

History classes . . . picnics . . . field trips . . . plays . . . countless enjoyable episodes . . . memories are made . . . Mr. Monmaney as a friend, teacher, adviser has been a part of these activities since we had him as our sixth grade teacher; he has helped us all along the route of our junior and senior high education. Therefore, we, the Class of '64, happily and proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Douglas Monmaney; we hope that this will show in a small way our great appreciation for all his efforts..

FOREWORD

It seems as though it was just yesterday that we entered P.H.S. as lowly freshmen, and yet very soon high school will be but a memory for us. We have done many things as a class and as individuals which have brought us joys and pleasures and at times perhaps pain and frustration.

The purpose of our yearbook is to record these events - to preserve in pictures the activities, organizations, friendships that are and have been a part of our school life.

Certainly it takes time and effort to assemble a yearbook, but we consider the time well spent if we can give to the student body and the school a cherished "memory book."

HISTORY

September 1961 saw our class enter P. H. S. as little freshmen. Our first weeks found us deep in initiation and election of class officers. To lead us through the year we elected the following: Robert Curtis, President; Michael Smyrski, Vice-President; Carla Ojala, Treasurer; and Rebecca Northrop, Secretary. Mr. Monmaney directed our first Junior One-Act play which was "Great Smokies." We came in with "top honors" of third place, but we enjoyed doing the play anyway.

Our sophomore year was about the quietest year of all. Our president that year was Robert Curtis once again; Constance Curtis, Vice-President; Joan Haley, Secretary; and Carla Ojala, Treasurer. For the Junior One-Act play we did "Life of the Party," directed by Mr. Monmaney, and we came in third place again. In the spring, we put on a record hop entitled "Palisades Park."

Our junior year started out with thoughts of how busy we were going to be. Under the capable leadership of our sponsor, the late Elliot Stevens, and our officers: Constance Curtis, President; Joan Haley, Vice-President; John Bruce, Treasurer; and Carla Ojala, Secretary, the year was busy and successful. Our first thoughts were turned to the work we were going to put into the Sadie Hawkins dance. The gym was decorated with scarecrows, cornstalks, and a still. In March we did the play, "In the Shadows," which was directed by Mrs. Burke. To our surprise we won the Junior One-Acts. We took the play to Otter Valley for the District One-Acts, but we lost there. Next came spring and our field trip to the Legislature in Montpelier. Finally - our biggest "treat" of the year was the Junior Prom. After many weeks of work with the help of Mr. Abbott and Juliano Cecchinelli, we presented our prom with the theme of "Bon Voyage." Under the shadows of our own Eiffel Tower, couples danced to the smooth music of Barry Haynes and his quartet. With the school year's end, our minds turned to our final big year as seniors!

On Wednesday, September 4, 1963, we began our final year at P. H. S. As our class officers, we elected the following: Harry Loso, President; John Bruce, Vice-President; Lorraine McCullough, Secretary; and Donna Gollstrom, Treasurer. We also welcomed back Mr. Monmaney as our sponsor. Mr. Abbott directed our senior play, "The Death and Life of Larry Benson," which we presented in the Proctor Town Hall on December 14, 1963.

CLASS PROPHECY

Gary Baccei - Gary has his own jeep-trucking firm. He delivers anything anywhere at anytime.

John Bruce - Jack has gone into a business all his own and people are just dying to see him.

Marleena Burns - Marla has opened her own restaurant specializing in Hungarian foods.

Juliano Cecchinelli - We all knew Julie would become a famous artist, but his first masterpiece surprised us - he called it "The Beatles."

Terry Champine - Terry has been seen in Rutland ringing "Silver Bells" in front of Woolworth's around Christmas time.

Constance Curtis - Connie is the new commercial teacher at P. H. S. She is developing a shorter shorthand.

Joyce Curtis - Joyce was recently fired from her job due to reasons beyond her control. The gum she was so inconspicuously chewing fell into the typewriter and gummed up the keys - would you believe it?

Robert Curtis - Curt is a senator from Vermont and has just introduced a bill returning prohibition.

Loren Durkee - Durk was just picked up for driving forty miles an hour on a throughway. His car just wouldn't go any faster.

Mary Jean Erickson - Mary Jean is the manager of a chain store specializing in elevated shoes and stilts.

Donna Gollstrom - Donna is the first woman Secretary of the Navy and is running the department very efficiently.

Joan Haley - Joan gave up singing and is now a drummer with "The Beatles" touring the world.

David Harrington - Dave has his own dairy farm. He figured it would be cheaper that way.

John Hurhula - We understand that John is in stiff competition with Loren. Two buckets of bolts and Hi Ho Silver Away!

William Kallio - Bill is still venturing to the "Manor" but hires a taxi for transportation.

William Ladabouche - Lid has just won the 1974 Indianapolis "500" in his Ford-powered "Lotis." He didn't wear a helmet but rather one of his "Lid" creations.

Linwood Larson - Lars is now a private guide for hunters wishing to enter the wilds of Goshen. Anyone desiring to bag anywhere from four to six rabbits a day - see Lars.

Linda LaValley - Linda is living in New Jersey with Johnnie - occupation - chief cook and bottle washer.

Harry Loso - Harry is in the jewel business. We always knew he was a gem.

Elizabeth May - Elizabeth is still trying to decide which man she wants.

Edward McCullough - Ed is now a prominent and devoted minister in his own Roadside Chapel.

Lorraine McCullough - Lorraine finds life in Scotland rather dull without her friends.

Bruce Moran - Bruce is a famous writer now and is known as one of the greatest orators of our time.

Marie Navari - Marie is in politics now, and when we saw her last she was delivering a fiery speech in the Senate.

Rebecca Northrop - Oops! We almost missed Becky. She's blonde now and no longer has her freckles!

Carla Ojala - Carla has her own automobile business and as a sideline she sells accident insurance.

Roger Partridge - Roger is presently employed by the "Audubon Society"; he is especially interested in the preservation of partridges.

Raymond Pentkowski - Ray is pastor of St. Sominics, and we recently read an ad in the paper that he wants a housekeeper. Did you hear that, Marilyn?

Claire Roy - Claire is running her own exclusive men's beauty parlor for bald-headed men.

Mary Russell - Mary is in the weaving business. No longer can she complain about the print of her material.

Michael Russell - Mike has just bred a new kind of cow, known as "Babe the Blue Ox."

Michael Smyrski - Mike has an established men's shop, exclusively for short men.

James Wright - We see Jim on a street corner in San Francisco forecasting the end of the world.

Keith Wright - Keith is a well-known chemist and has his own laboratory somewhere on the Sahara.

CLASS WILL

MARY JEAN - leaves her shyness to Elsie Senecal.

JAMES WRIGHT - leaves his dancing ability to Robert Greene.

MARY RUSSELL - leaves her clarinet to Alan Westin.

MARLEENA BURNS - leaves her shyness to Janine Mayo.

LORRAINE McCULLOUGH - leaves her smiles to Mary Trinci.

DONNA GOLLSTROM - will leave her brains to Carol.

BRUCE MORAN - leaves the woods open to Tilson Frappier.

WILLIAM KALLIO - leaves his I. D. to Robert Austin.

WILLIAM LADABOUCHE - leaves his bongos to Robert Gradziel.

REBECCA NORTHROP - leaves her curlers to Katherine Candon.

JOHN BRUCE - leaves his private parking place at the pond to Richard Duprey.

JOAN HALEY - leaves her basketfull of giggles to Martha Smith.

MICHAEL RUSSELL - leaves his pitchfork to Robert Hanscarik.

MICHAEL SMYRSKI - leaves his basketball ability to Roger Dumas.

LINWOOD LARSON - leaves what he lost to himself.

LINDA LaVALLEY - leaves her graceful walk to Donna Smith.

RAYMOND PENTKOWSKI - leaves Marilyn to his brother.

CARLA OJALA - leaves her appearance to Bomba.

CLAIRE ROY - leaves her shadow to Mary Kamuda.

GARY BACCEI - leaves his clowning ability to Frank Bump.

TERRY CHAMPINE - leaves his frankness to James Candon.

ROBERT CURTIS - leaves his receding hairline to Kevin Austin.

HARRY LOSO - just leaves.

JOYCE CURTIS - leaves her height to Pamela Moran.

CONSTANCE CURTIS - leaves her success to her sister.

EDWARD McCULLOUGH - leaves his proverbs to "Timmins" Austin.

JOHN HURHULA - will leave his muscles to Thomas Haley.

LOREN DURKEE - will leave his English ability to Amy Belding.

ROGER PARTRIDGE - will leave his ability to argue to Jane Mazut.

DAVID HARRINGTON - leaves his ulcers to anyone who wants them.

JULIANO CECCHINELLI - leaves his comb to Joyce Olson.

ELIZABETH MAY - leaves her curly hair to Meryl Lisananti.

KEITH WRIGHT - leaves his flying ability to the bumble bees.

MARIE NAVARI - leaves her curly red hair to Lorna Ayre.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY, Left to Right: Connie Curtis, Raymond Pentkowski, Donna Gollstrom.

No organization in Proctor High School has as much prestige in the world outside of the school or is as potentially valuable to the student fortunate enough to be elected to membership as the National Honor Society. Election to this national society is made by a council of faculty members. Eligibility depends upon superiority in the four qualities, Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service, and is open to students after the fifth semester of high school. Scholastic eligibility for the Redfield Proctor Chapter requires an overall B-average with no failing semester marks in any subject, and the student must have enrolled in no less than five full-credit courses or their equivalent for each year.

On behalf of the school faculty and administration, I congratulate the three members of the Class of 1964 who are National Honor scholars. I hope future classes may succeed in placing even more students on the rolls of the National Honor Society.

The Senior Class of Proctor Junior-Senior High School wishes to thank its parents and friends for contributions which help make possible the publication of another year-book--the 1964 Proctorian.

It also wishes to extend its thanks to Mr. William Bartlett, of Bartlett Studio, Rutland, Vermont, for his untiring efforts in photographing the students of Proctor Junior-Senior High School and for his high-quality work which has given us a permanent record of our days here.
